

APRIL 4

WE ARE ONE

RESPECT OUR RIGHTS

ON APRIL 4, 1968, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated in Memphis, where he had gone to stand with sanitation workers demanding their dream: The right to bargain collectively for a voice at work and a better life.

Today, that same demand is electrifying people across America. It's the demand of all people—black, white, Latino and Asian American: The right to join together for our common dreams.

JOIN US TO MAKE APRIL 4, 2011, AND THE DAYS SURROUNDING IT A TIME TO STAND IN SOLIDARITY with working people in Wisconsin, Ohio, Indiana and dozens of other states where well-funded, right-wing corporate politicians are trying to take away the rights Dr. King gave his life for. It's a time to show movement. A time to be creative, but clear: We are one.
