

Council 13
AFSCME
SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

AFSCME Council 13's Scholarship Program is for Members Only. Scholarships are one-time-only payments, which may be applied toward educational expenses, such as tuition, lodging and books. A total of 48 $500 undergraduate scholarships are awarded each year to the children and grandchildren of AFSCME members (and retirees) in good standing. The top four of the 48 are selected to receive an additional $1,000. One additional $500 scholarship is awarded to a graduate student.

2024 Scholarship Essay Prompt

"Evaluate the challenges that organized labor in the United States is likely to face due to rapid technological advancements, particularly in artificial intelligence, and discuss the strategies and adaptations necessary for labor unions to thrive in this evolving landscape. Conclude with your vision of the future of organized labor in the context of technological advancement. Reflect on how organized labor can not only survive but also play a pivotal role in shaping the future of work."

CLOSES JULY 1, 2024
