

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTIONS

PRE-SELECT YOUR WORKSHOPS!

Each participant will have the opportunity to take 2 workshops in addition to participating in the Young Worker World Café in the afternoon.

SHOP STEWARD TRAINING

Kristie Wolf-Maloney, AFSCME Council 13 Grievance Department

This course is intended for less seasoned Shop Stewards. In this workshop, participants will learn how to effectively write a grievance and compile supporting documentation that will make for a solid case.

UNION 101: BUILDING KNOWLEDGE ABOUT YOUR UNION FROM THE GROUND UP

Olga Liapis-Muzzy, AFSCME International

Union 101 is designed for the novice member who wants to learn the A-Zs of union membership. This workshop will cover a brief history of AFSCME, how we use our union's strength to organize and win, and the role of AFSCME members in the political realm. Come learn how to become an effective and active member in your local!

UNIONS & POLITICS

Michael Maguire, AFSCME Council 13 Legislative Department

This workshop is geared around how to effectively lobby anyone. Local Legislators will share why it is important to hear from their constituents. Leaving the workshop you'll be able to speak about important topics like Pensions, Privatization and other issues surrounding our union.

ACTIVATING YOUR COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Tammy Miller, Tammy Speaks LLC

Have you ever struggled with thinking on your feet, or had a difficult time organizing your thoughts? Do you have a message to get out to your members and the public, but you aren't sure how to put it all together? If so, then this workshop is for you! Join Tammy Miller as she demonstrates a sure-fire way to help you think on your feet and organize your thoughts. We also look at multiple ways to activate YOUR communication skills and make your message better and stronger for great emphasis. Stop in and join the fun!

MOVING UP IN UNION LEADERSHIP

Tracy Monahan, AFSCME International

Do you aspire to a higher leadership position in our union? Drawing on the experience of successful role models, this class will focus on strategies and tactics for overcoming barriers and building support for "moving up." You will develop an individual plan of action for achieving your goal in our union.
